This document has been created to talk about the recent drama regarding the Youtubers JuniDrawz and YummiCactus. Please look at this document to read more first hand experience and information from their ex-friends. This document has helped form much of the document you are now currently reading.

(the document above has TONS of context that Dippy provides, showing proof. Watch it if you have seen Juni's video about how he apparently got groomed.)

Multiple individuals including ex-friends of Juni and Yummi have come together to create this document to share their experiences and show full context about the recent allegations of these Youtubers. This will go over everything in as much context as possible, but please note these individuals VC'd often making certain claims and screenshots seem more out of context. I will do my best to explain as much as possible to avoid confusion.

This isn't a "callout" to make these people sound bad or to label them as predators. Rather, it's been written to show the negligence and unfairness Juni and Yummi have treated past friends and dramas. They have lied and manipulated their audiences labeling their ex-friends as groomers and manipulators when that is not the case.

This is not a black and white situation. Nobody is perfect. All of the individuals in this document have done harm in some way. Please keep that in mind.

This document is best viewed online/the web. Some images may be blurry on mobile.

How did we get here?

This section is dedicated to how Mason and Dippy became friends with Juni and Yummi.

Mason

I met Juni and Yummi in July of 2025, I didn't know much about them other than Dippy knew them. Our GC was made on 7/27 while the YoureTripleBlocked drama was happening, specifically to talk about the stream. I had been talking to them for about 2 weeks by then, but nothing really happened during that time. Only on 8/13 is when everything started, Necrophilia, self harm, and gore were introduced to me on a call that lasted 3 hours. By the end I said "Oh my god, I think I'm a necrophile." and Juni asking if I'd like to see some of their necrophilic art, they deleted it right after, but Yummi did not delete the art they sent. We started getting really close after this, and calling for hours on end, playing roblox and talking about drama. On 9/20 I officially said I was NOT a necrophile, even after this they continued to make jokes as of 9/22

On 10/20 we decided to finally confront them about how we felt. At first we were getting apologies, and then we started getting blamed. Apparently not saying stop or no makes it okay for them to share gore and necrophilia. After this we "made up" (dippy and I literally just gave up on trying to talk) and made a new group chat, with the promise of saying we'd communicate more. We did not

Here ive linked a recording of the entire "confrontation gc." Confronting(slow down to read, and read carefully.)

It went from apologizing to straight up guilt tripping. I wasn't in the entire call but it was literally just Yummi crying and I left.

Dippy:

I first met Juni when my ex-friend, Jack Cinnamonbarf, was telling me about how this youtuber made a video about Charlie (Jack's now ex-partner). Jack would tell me about how much this Juni person annoyed him, and he DM'd Juni about the video. Soon he invited Juni to his now deleted server and asked me to join a VC with both of them, so I did. I was very confused when I was talking with Juni because he wasn't like how Jack described him at all. He was very kind and nice to talk to so we started playing games more and talking often in the server. Juni soon introduced me to Yummi and invited me to their own server, I started to view Juni as a friend so I asked if I could add him to my strawpage friends list:

We started getting closer and Juni also got semi-close with Jack, but then Jack started talking bad about Juni even though he wasn't doing anything wrong. He would talk behind his back and I felt the need to tell Juni and Yummi about it. They were obviously hurt by Jack's words so I decided to spy for a little bit in the moderator chat, as time went on a lot of bad things were coming out about Jack, specifically him being a groomer. This led to Juni finally making the decision to make a video on him and reach out to more people. He told me to exaggerate my experience on Jack and use specific wording to make people more inclined to believe Juni's video (Which isn't a bad thing, it's just pointing out the fact that he deliberately uses specifically phrases to bring more people towards his side) Our friendship expanded and I often helped him get out of trouble frequently, since I expressed to him how much I care for my friends, and how I'd do anything for them. Juni knew how protective I am when it comes to friends, Often asking me to do favors (like taking blames for him, will show up in this document)

I don't remember what the conversation was that we had a few weeks forward, but my response to something Juni said was "I remember quite well, actually." And I honestly panicked a little bit, because I had made an Alfred's playhouse reference without meaning to, since a lot of people are understandably put off by it (it kept popping up on my tiktok for you page, and that line was stuck in my head). Juni asked if he heard it correctly and I started saying sorry, but to my surprise he said it was perfectly okay and that I don't have to worry, and that he was actually a fan of APH. Shortly after he went to our groupchat with only me, Yummi, and him in it, and drew us as alfredsonas. There was definitely more conversation that happened before he drew those, but I sadly cannot go back to it and verify since I got kicked from that GC.

A few months later we played Minecraft and VC'd in a groupchat called elite chuds (important I swear, bear with me) and that same night Juni said he had to go do something real quick. Yummi just said "oh my god" and I was curious, so I asked him what happened, and he kept saying "I can't tell you, it has to do with Juni, but I want to tell you" in response I said "It's okay you don't have to tell me." And he told me anyway but said I couldn't tell Juni. He said that Juni left to go cut himself for him, and I was understandably, taken aback by what he said. When Juni got back we all talked for a bit and then Yummi brought up what Juni did and he asked Juni if he could send me a photo of what he did. I said sure and was shown Juni's self harm, this photo no longer exists. I will clarify. I did say yes out of curiosity and the night continued on from there. we called inside the other groupchat and they wanted me to search up "extreme questions" (yes, they did contain sexual questions, but they wanted that and I offered other questions that seemed more tame and they didn't want to do those) to all ask each other. I found some, pasted it into the GC, and we all answered them together. Which is actually when they told me that they were necrophiles. Juni admitted to being one first and he "convinced" Yummi into being one too.They then asked if we could do the "BDSM test" and we did. We all showed our results together but I have no clue if they deleted theirs or not from the GC. A lot of my answers were the way they are because of childhood trauma, and I will not be elaborating on any of them.

A little further in the future I remember wanting to make Jojo Rabbit fanart, but felt weird about it since in my mind that's almost like making fanart of Nazis, so I went to Yummi about it asking questions in VC. He said it was perfectly fine and that he's "drawn way worse", and then asked if I wanted to see the Hetalia Iron Cross fanart he made once (now deleted, but he sent more military art he made afterwards) to reassure me that the fanart was okay to make. I decided to lighten his mood so I jokingly drew up a stupid image:

More months passed and Juni wanted to call me at the same time as my other friends, and I didn't want to choose between them, so I tried to explain to Juni that they wanted to call and he said if he could join our friend server. I hosted a poll and everyone there agreed to let him and Yummi in. I told Juni that my friends make certain jokes that they might not agree with but he said he was fine with it. We were all having fun and just hanging out with one another, and then one of my servers that I owned got spammed with gore links. I deleted them promptly and took screenshots as evidence, but my curiosity got the best of me and I decided to look at if one of them was actually real. And it was. I was in a panicked state and shocked so I was rapidly explaining what I just saw to Juni in DM's, after frantically saying that (we were in call too), I sent the link after saying if he wanted it (VC, proof below). This was horrible for me to do and I regret doing it, but Juni has stated he forgave me. And he said he doesn't hold it against me:

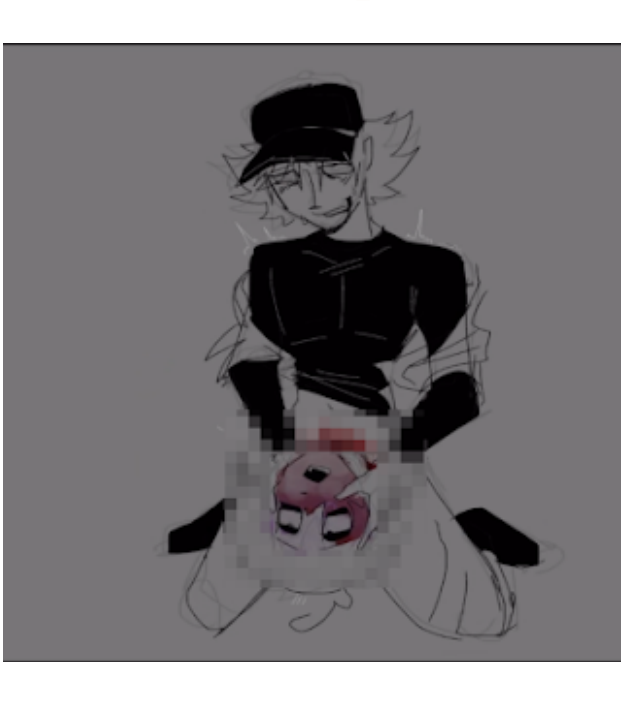
Further ahead in time, We all realized what we were doing was wrong, and I had continued to feel this way before saying anything to them. Which is a fault on my part. I'd participate in problematic things with them without saying something about it, and even sometimes I would willingly follow through with it without realizing how bad it actually was. I will admit that I have said horrible things about others in private GC's with them and I deeply regret it. I have said similar things that Juni had said about Chrissy, and I know I can't take it back, but I am sorry. Nobody is obligated to forgive me. I just need people to know that I didn't groom anybody. I never forced people to participate in anything. I never sexually or emotionally exploited people. More is explained in my own doc: providing context for context

Paraphilia

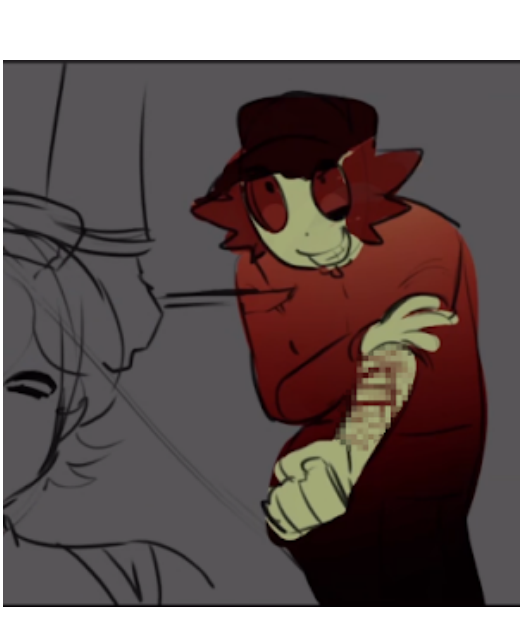
Despite having a history of going against paraphiles (example, Analbones) publicly, both Yummi and Juni have a history of parading around paraphilic pride. Either in drawing their characters with the necrophilia (and pedophilia) pride flag color palette, to openly engaging in desecrating each other's corpses, among all else.

They also engage in consuming gore, of actual people. Which by definition would make them complex contact necrophiles, as having this attraction whilst consuming content that would affirm said attraction is by definition still offending. (This will be elaborated on further in this section.)

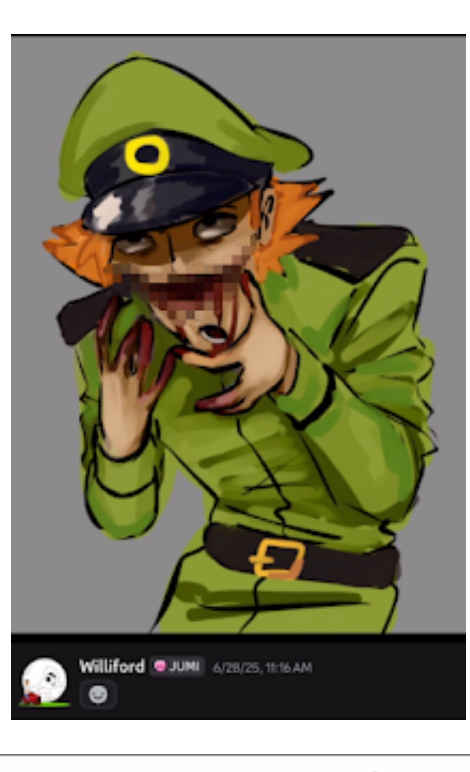
Statement from Dippy: I would like to let it be known that Juni has told me he gaslit Yummi into being a necrophile. I had no part in this. He continues to lie.



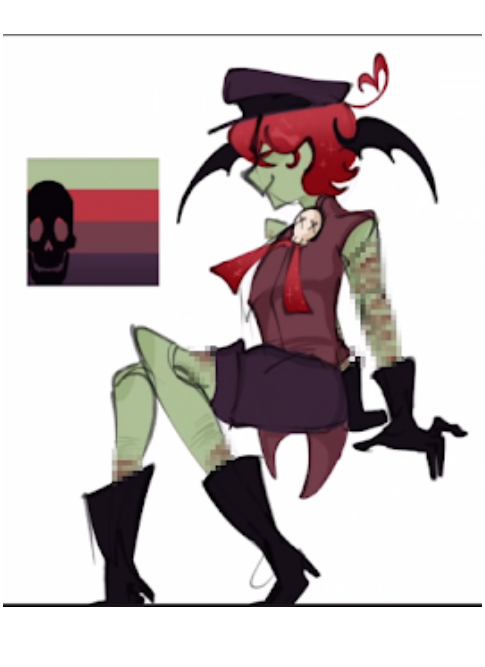
Art of Yummi's persona (Hazard), having sex with Juni's personas decapitated head.

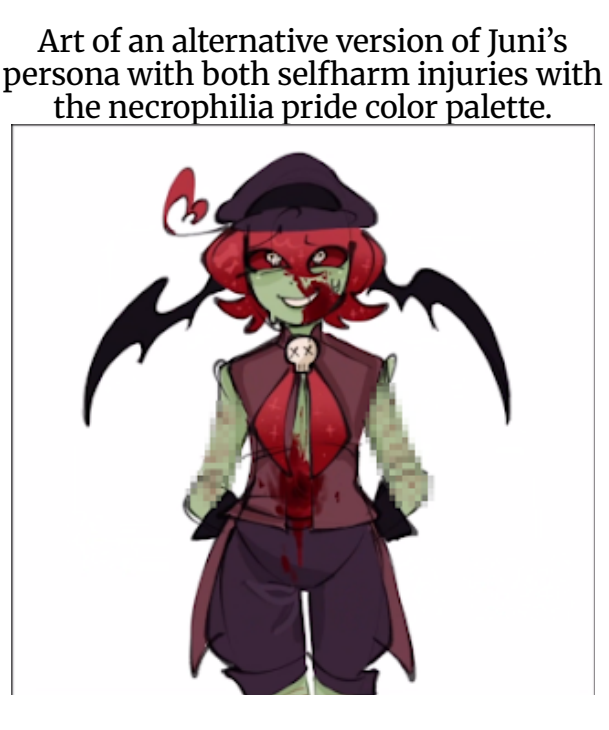


art of Yummi's persona with the necrophile pride color palette with additional selfharm injuries.



art of one of Yummi's personas which is based off an infamous gore video under the name of "Ms Pacman".





Art of an alternative version of Juni's persona with both selfharm injuries with the necrophilia pride color palette.

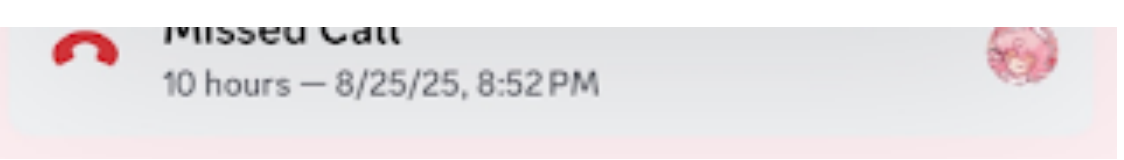
I will note, there is not a lot of proper "evidence" for the consuming gore part, because a majority of these incidents happened in a voice call, in which proving these incidents happened would be physically impossible unless one of the many parties involved recorded these calls.



Missed Call
10 hours — 8/25/25, 8:52 PM

But be aware these calls are very real, sometimes going on from between 3 to at maximum 10 hours.

There are ample messages where they insinuate they are consuming gore content actively, or have already done so.

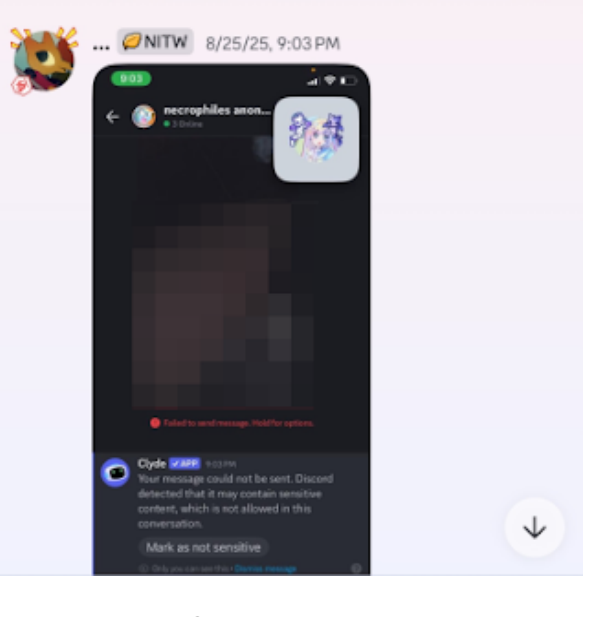
This screenshot includes a message of Juni saying he's "scrolling gore forums", this screenshot is also part of a pair of screenshots in which Yummi and Juni change the group chat name because it could ruin Yummi and Juni's reputation. Also, the original group chats name was "necrophiles anonymous" as sighted by screenshots taken before the name change.



... NITW 8/25/25, 9:03 PM

You can argue the intent of this message being a joke, though given the previous context of Juni and Yummi exposing others to consuming actual gore content with them it does not get rid of the connotation associated with it.

"god might disagree with me but i don't see anything wrong with necrophilia".

Despite this potentially being quoted from Moral Orel, it still is a cause for concern given the context. The messy cry-typing isn't helping either.

Here is proof of Juni's gallery, showing he did in fact create necrophilic art. Note the art style, timestamp and other pieces of artwork. He said that all of his problematic artwork was from 6 months to a year ago.

Though it does not stop at necrophilia, there are additional images where Juni drew a character known as MAPJimbo; a character plastered with the pedophilia pride color palette and a pedophile dog whistle on the hat.

Nazism

Another incredibly disturbing thing that's been found out is Juni and Yummi's Nazi artwork. This directly contrasts everything they have publicly stood for. Mind you, Juni is jewish himself. It is extremely sad and concerning that he would not only allow his partner to draw such works but also partake in it himself.

Below is a screenshot of one of Juni's OCs with a Nazi uniform. Note the art style, which is extremely recent:

Dippy note: Yummi is the one who told Juni to draw this.

Rape

DISCLAIMER: This section is not included to shame or humiliate Yummi or Juni, more over it is here to showcase that despite publicly shaming and ridiculing others for "glamorizing/fetishizing" rape, they do this themselves.

Although they have cancelled others for 'glamorizing' rape, Juni and Yummi are not innocent from this either. They have engaged in the same content as well, even sharing it to their friends, romanticizing it by joking about it and requesting for their friends to draw it for them.

We should also let it be known, Yummi specifically has said very degrading things regarding Daisy's rape. There is no evidence, as it happened in VC, however considering Yummi and Juni's habit to wish death on others, and mock their traumatic experiences, this is not far fetched at all.

Yummi's first comment was regarding Daisy's older rapist cousin grooming him into touching one of his siblings as a child. He stated, "He could've gotten away with it since nobody mentioned it" and that he "hated how honest Cupidite was"

The second statement is far more graphic, with him literally downright stating: "I hope Daisy gets raped by their cousin again" because he was mad at him. We should also let it be known Juni did criticize Yummi for this comment, and was audibly disgusted.

(Daisy note: I fucking hate you, Yummi I literally have nothing else to say lol)

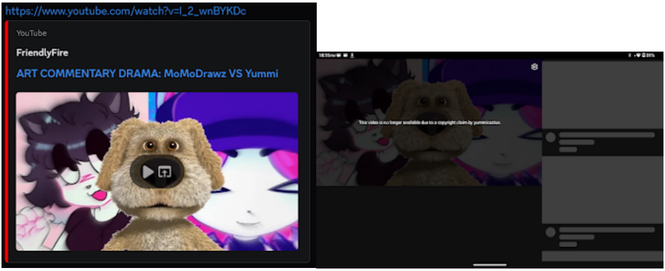
Harrassment

Juni and Yummi have been known to handle criticism very poorly. They have on multiple occasions asked friends to harass people they disliked and copystriked multiple youtube videos on themselves.

In regards to copyright strike abusing, here is an example of Yummi doing this to a video uploaded by FriendlyFire, more specifically it was a video demystifying the allegations surrounding MomoDrawz potentially being Cupidite.



https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l_2_wnBYKDc

YouTube

FriendlyFire

ART COMMENTARY DRAMA: MoMoDrawz VS Yummi

This video is no longer available due to a copyright claim by yummicactus https://files.catbox.moe/aw83xr.mp4 FriendlyFire's unlisted video speaking upon this.

In which, FriendlyFire also mentions that he has done coverage and commentary of Yummi's previous videos with no issues from Yummi, which indicates that this video was expressly targeted.

This video never once included any of Yummi's content, it was struck on the guise of covering up potential evidence to prove that MomoDrawz wasn't Cupditie because that would hamper their credibility.

Below is a screenshot where Juni pleads for Dippy to harass yourtripleblocked in their TikTok comment section by using alternative accounts to bully him:

Although it is not mentioned where these screenshots came from, these screenshots originated within a server that was expressly made for harassing people they did not like and collecting information on them so they could further weaponize that information.

Manipulation

Juni and Yummi have been proven to be lying to their fanbases on multiple occasions, one example being when Juni lied about being in a psych ward during the CinnamonBarf drama. On top of that, they have also made their friends take the blame for them on multiple occasions to not get into trouble.

I full heartedly believed it

I've been a fan of you for quite some time, and have watched all your videos, but I genuinely just can't believe that you'd doxx someone. I know your mental health isn't in the best shape right now, but that's no excuse to justify doxxing. It's happened to you, so why do it to somebody else? You know the fear it causes, the stress, the paranoia, the anxiety, so why do it? Why help do it? Why get your fans to go out and harass people? I believe in change, so I hope you grow from this, but this genuinely is such a low move to do to somebody. Nothing like this situation should ever lead to a doxx.

then juni and yummi told me they lied all about it this is when i first was getting to know them btw

Hypocrisy

Juni and Yummi have made countless videos about drama within the art community this past year. This wouldn't be an issue if the morals they preached to the cameras were the same as what they thought behind the scenes. If the two were able to research and edit entire videos about these topics, they should have been educated enough to know what they were doing was wrong.

Some of the past videos that directly go against evidence include:

Analbones 2.mp4 – Juni expressing how unforgivable it is for Analbones to draw gore, porn, CSEM, self-harm, etc. of peoples OCs. Juni and Yummi have drawn rape, porn and gore of people they don't like as well.

Analbones 3.mp4 – Juni knows Yummi hides his age from his audience for the same reason (to make himself sound more like a victim of being a minor and excuse actions).

Analbones.mp4 – Juni states making paraphile OCs even if they're recolors is harmful, while doing the same thing (ex: making his main OC a recolor of MAPJimbo, as well as recoloring his OC as the necrophilic pride flag).

Does Problematic + Good Artist 3.mp4 – Juni says to not harass someone with the same art style as someone problematic… this directly contradicts his and Yummi's document on Momodrawz due to the fact one of their main points was how Momo had a similar art style to Cupidite.

Does Problematic = Good Artist 2.mp4 – Juni has been shown harassing people privately, asking their friends to do so and admitting that they know their fanbase will harass people if they word it properly.

Does Problematic = Good Artist.mp4 – Juni states he does not accept Charlie's apology while having the same excuse that it was only between friends of the same age range (16-17). Yummi publicly shared his rape art between friends and did not keep it with himself, with Juni supporting this.

P.S THERE ARE MANY MORE VIDEOS THAT WILL BE ADDED (I just currently do not have the energy to add them right now.)

Below is a screenshot from Juni's most recent youtube post (uncropped in the next sub-tab). "Everything was kept private..." was possibly in regards to the inappropriate art he made. Yummi has leaked private NSFW of others' art multiple times which contradicts that it was 'bad' that his and Juni's art was leaked.

thats my fault, I was 15 for most of it and everything was kept private (which is why none of my other friends realized i was getting groomed) I am not like the people in my videos especially it gets worse with me....

Allegations

Let me start this off by saying no, Dippy and Mason are not groomers. Juni has lied about them grooming him and Yummi to excuse their actions. It is completely unfair since all of them did the same things. Juni cannot excuse his age either because the age gap between him and every member there wasn't even 2 years. He was only around 3 months younger than Mason at the time of these instances. Keep in mind the platform that Juni and Yummi hold as well, and what it is based upon. More than just age is relevant in situations such as this. No, this is not us accusing them of being groomers, just pointing out hypocrisy and ignorance.

Proof of Juni admitting the claims that his ex-friends were predators:

Im going to stay online but ill probably be online less, i only post on weekends and rarely use other social medias, my mom regulates all the stuff i do now so i dont fall into spaced with predators or dangerous people anymore thankfully. I have many friends who hold me accountable and tell me when ive done something wrong so i dont repeat and I can confidently say this will never happen again. I told my ex friends not to show or send me that content anymore and distanced myself from them before they leaked all of it and doxxed me

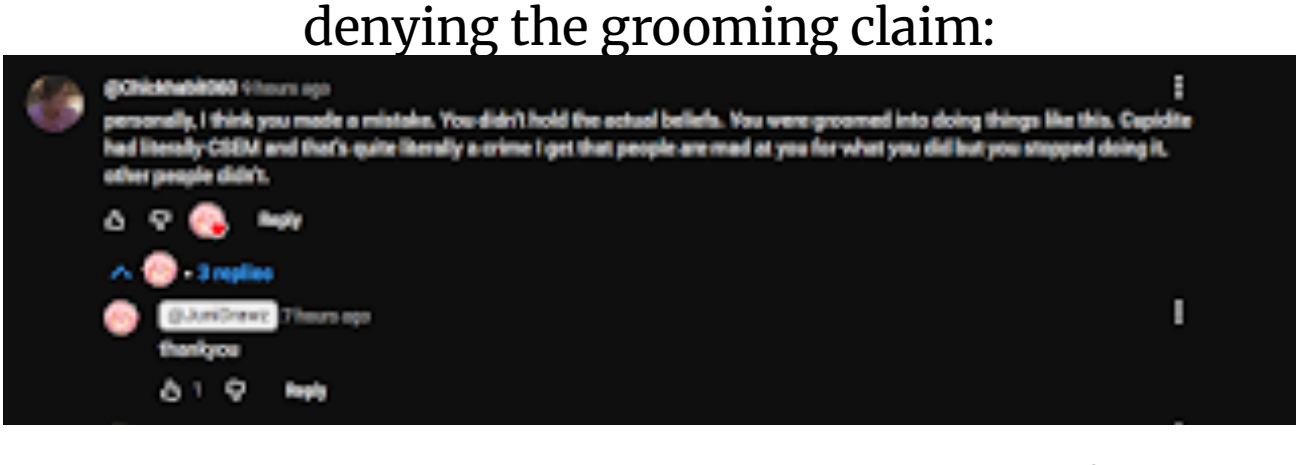
Juni not denying the grooming claim:



@ChickNab8060 9 hours ago
personally, I think you made a mistake. You didn't hold the actual beliefs. You were groomed into doing things like this. Cupidite had literally CSEM and that's quite literally a crime I get that people are mad at you for what you did but you stopped doing it, other people didn't.

Juni had been willingly posting and exposing his friends to the same things during all of this. It is a double standard if he believes that they should've known better, when he and his boyfriend clearly were educated enough to make videos calling out other youtubers for the same things.

Also, Dippy and Mason did not doxx Juni. I have seen screenshots of Juni's phone being blown up and they do feel bad that somehow it was leaked, but Dippy and Mason have admitted to not being a part of that and not condoning it. Same with the allegation of them having and spreading Juni's nudes. They have admitted Juni has not once sent them any nudes so the claim that they are the ones spreading it is a lie. There is no proof of Juni's nudes being leaked except word of mouth either.

Dippy and Mason are also not a part of the UTTP. This rumor makes no sense. They do not support whatever actions these people partake in.
Juni has stated that the UTTP is currently trying to target him and it is worrisome if that is true but there has been no evidence of Dippy nor Mason helping them so do not assume they condone these actions.

Additionally, if the UTTP was involved, the UTTP would not stop at just targeting Juni, they would harass everyone equally involved because they happen to be queer, something the UTTP is notorious for being against.

This screenshot has been disproven by all of the other evidence that's been shown. Juni is straight up lying to their fanbase about everything to seem like the victim. He did not get groomed. There was not a huge age difference between any of the individuals involved. They did not hold any power over him. He was not forced into anything. He willingly allowed it to continue even after his friends asked him if he felt uncomfortable. This has not happened a year ago, the most recent screenshot about this situation is from October. Do not believe his lies (more below):

Nothing excuses my actions but ive also never put any children at risk?? All of the stuff made was from months ago when i was around very not-safe people who would constantly encourage me to be overly sexual, (despite being the youngest in that group), they had me watch gore with them, and streamed some of the most genuinely disgusting shit ive ever seen in my life and will never unsee. I never said no to anything they had me do and thats my fault, I was 15 for most of it and everything was kept private (which is why none of my other friends realized i was getting groomed) I am not like the people in my videos especially when my most recent two videos are about a genuine child predator who sexually extorted a 13yr old. And im not 'high and mighty' for anything, my groomer leaked my self harm, gave my full adress and number to the people who have been trying to doxx me for weeks, and are working with online group members who have my n/dles, and the reason this is all happening is because i told them i didnt wanna engage in any of the disturbing shit they made me do anymore. I was terrified of blocking them directly since theyve severely doxxed and witchunted their ex friends before and i didnt wanna be that next target even though i am now. My life isnt ruined because I got the police involved, of COURSE i have to report the people doxxing me and saying they have c[illegible] of me??

If Mason and Dippy were forcing Juni to watch gore with them, why would he say this?

No one in this situation has groomed Juni, nor has anyone coerced him to make necrophilia art of his OC. If anything, he's done the exact thing as the supposed "groomers" he's been crying about. None of Dippy's friends would have either, considering they made this art before they joined their friend group server.

The first screenshot is around where Mason met Juni, in July. Juni and Yummi's was sent around May

Notable features of the art in question:
Juni's art features a character with the pedophile pride color palette alongside a known pedophile dog whistle on the hat.

Below is proof of Juni and Yummi being okay with interacting with these sorts of things and joking about them even after it being brought up they might be weighed down by these jokes since they wanted to 'change.'

FINAL THOUGHTS

Every party involved within this situation is by definition, not a good person.

Though, I also believe it's a little asinine to act as if because of that this situation should not be looked at anything further than just bad parties doing bad things to one another, this situation requires nuance.

This document was not made to prove that they are bad people or unwilling to change because it is possible for them to learn and do better. It was made to clear up misconceptions regarding the initial allegations against everyone involved.

It is important for all parties to take accountability, reflect on what's happened and do their best to improve.

It has become clear that Juni and Yummi's relationship is not healthy for themselves or those around them. I genuinely believe they need to get off the internet and get help. They clearly lack empathy and respect for the people they've hurt and lied to, including their audience. The art commentary community is already a toxic place especially for minors and this instance shows that they are not equipped to handle such serious topics.

These two should not be in a relationship. They have openly stated that they are harming each other and not being able to recover because of this. It is extremely concerning to know they are allowed to interact in real life knowing that they have admitted to literally cutting and causing each other to relapse. This is not safe for either of them.

With them also themselves being minors, they should not have a platform in commentary, because minors do not have consistent opinions and or morals nor are they developed enough to understand the severity of making extremely damaging allegations against other minors.

Commentary is inherently an adults only space, because you take on the responsibility of being an influence to people. A minor cannot handle this responsibility due to being mentally underdeveloped, and these two have showcased they have not only lacked the ability to handle it, they have showcased that they are more than comfortable abusing their platform.

Additionally, they need simply to tell the truth to everyone. They lie and manipulate their audience and friends so that they can get away with these problems. There are victims in this story. They have caused their friends to relapse and normalized awful things to them. They should not be allowed to get away with this.

Both Dippy and Mason have acknowledged their wrongs and have been trying to improve so that they do not fall back into this mindset. Juni and Yummi have only shifted the blame onto them instead of admitting that they are also at fault, if not even more due to the fact they normalized and harmed these two so much.

Personal Statements

Personal Statements

Personal statement from Mason.

As of writing this it is currently November 13th, 2025. Which means it has been two months since everything really started. I want to give everyone the timeline I PERSONALLY experienced. Which means some things that happened may be left out because I was genuinely not a part of it.

First off I want to apologize specifically to Juni for lying and saying the "UTTP" was targeting me, they were not. I did this in order to keep your trust as it was obvious it was fading super fast. The people I was in contact with were not UTTP as you claim, and I'm pretty sure you guys had a personal convo about this as well. Also we did NOT doxx you. You have never sent us any personal information or nudes, the most sexual thing you gave us was telling us in detail about how you guys had sex in the car an hour before calling.

I met Juni and Yummi sometime in July of this year. They were always around but that's when I first acknowledged their existence. After I found out they were artists I went to both their tiktoks and followed them. Within a month of being their friend, they actively exposed me to gore, necrophilia, nazi jokes, encouraging me to self harm and more. I'd like to emphasize I had never ever been exposed to real genuine necrophilia and content this severe of nature before being their friend. The most I had consumed about a year prior was just gore images, and I had a severe addiction to sh which I was actively recovering from at the time. (I was 9 months clean.)
I almost went to a mental hospital due to my severe addiction, and Juni and Yummi knew this.
I didn't know WPD was a thing, and I didn't even know forums for necrophilous art existed either.

I want to make it clear now. I labeled myself as a necrophile for 3 weeks, they have been participating in this taboo for months.

(Personal statement from Dippy)

It is currently November 16th, 2025. Despite all of the lies they have said about me and continue to spread, knowing that their fan base will believe them. I wish them well. Even if they got my artfight banned and my friend's Youtube stripped from him. I cannot forgive them for making my best friend relapse after being clean for so long, but I wish them a smooth recovery for their actions. I hope they change. They should listen to the advice they gave Chrissy and focus on art.

Please don't harass them. But I don't think they deserve a platform when they constantly lie and deceive their followers at any chance they get. Such as they are currently doing right now. No adults groomed Juni. I didn't groom Juni. I haven't the slightest clue how Juni even thinks I sexually exploited him. He's the one that would message me first about him and Yummi doing explicit things with one another, and other things of the sorts. I hold no ill will towards either of them. But they cannot act like I "exposed" them because they wanted to change. My friends gave all of the evidence first. I did give them it, but I didn't know their intentions. They asked to see my conversations with Juni and Yummi so I screenrecorded, I then got added to a group chat with people Juni claimed to be UTTP, and I originally freaked out to Mason being nervous, but he calmed me down. I do not know Juni's address. I do not have his phone number. I do not have his nudes. They did not hurt me. Let this be known. That is all that I have to say for now.

Personal Statement from Brandon.

Hi, my name is Brandon. I only have a brief statement to put out there since this drama doesn't really involve me. During the time Juni and Yummi were participating in problematic behaviors, I during that time was going through extreme and horrible religious psychosis. I do believe Juni and Yummi have the right to bring up my past actions because their past actions are relevant. And I just want to say I'm extremely embarrassed by myself during that time. I don't excuse my actions but this is an explanation of why I did so. I don't agree with what I did. I was literally clinically insane during this time. My mental state was beyond broken. And I didn't care for what I was doing. I'm ashamed of what I did during psychosis and I am disgusted in myself. Again, I'm not excusing my past behaviors, this is just an explanation.

Personal statement from Daisy/Cupidite

Hello, I am Daisy/Cupidite. I feel incredibly disgusted, and I don't think I'll ever find it in my heart to forgive Juni, or Yummi. I was manipulated, isolated, and defamed because of them, and I am genuinely hurt. I have lost most of what I have because of them, and I grasp onto straws every day trying to build it back. I also do not appreciate them calling me a predator, but that should be obvious. The evidence I've attached clears my name, and has been for several months, yet they refuse to acknowledge it. It is deliberating. All I've ever wanted were friends, and they took advantage of that even before all of the predatory allegations. These people genuinely make me feel a pit in my stomach.

When I heard about the things Yummi said regarding my rape, I cried like I hadn't before. I barely ate for days after finding out, and even now I don't feel the same. I also didn't mention this as I didn't know where, but they prayed I would die because of my sepsis/epilepsy. They went on my community posts where I posted an IV in my arm, and hoped I died because of a 9 times out of 10 deadly infection. I don't really know what to say.

Yummi and Juni do not and have not suffered a fraction of the amount I have, and it is making me upset they're probably going to get away with this.

If I can't excuse my past actions, neither can they. One thing I've never done, is lie though. They lie all the time.

I pray for justice, both for me, and all the other parties involved.

MY EXPERIENCE WITH YUMMI AND JUNI

Hi i'm Vinny/Chrissy/youretripleblocked you may know me from yummi's videos (he's made a few on me actually).

You may dislike me, I know i've fucked up the past said things I shouldn't have said but the amount of harassment/targeted attacks yummi and juni sent my way was very much unwarranted.

They made their servers mass report my tiktok which ended up with multiple eventual bans, they've made me contemplate suicide, and made me relapse multiple times, have caused my doxx. This might have seen in indirect at first but seeing their private messages this was clearly their goal with me.

Submission — Expose Charlie's Murderers

ive been too lazy to check the gps things but im sure i can do that today

Thankfully I was out the whole day and was far from home while doing that livestream with them but the fact they played in my face and lured me into that is so insane?

Not to mention the fact they were gonna put me on that Charlie's murderer's website, which doxxed anyone who made fun of charlie kirk's passing, which is completely opportunistic and hypocritical to do especially considering their "left leaning" persona.

I also want to add I HAVE been doxxed in the past, after yummi talked about putting a "gps" on me. i've been sent my exact address via strawpage anonymously and this was more than once by seemingly different people. Now i'm not sure how they got it but since yummi and juni were tracking me and are the main reason why I got a lot of backlash in the first place i'm worried it could be connected to them.

LEAKING MY NSFW ART

Also they directly searched for and somehow gained access to my nsfw account, an account that was clearly stated to be 18+ and since they're minors I never wanted them to see it. The account contained vent art too and just art that wasn't meant to get out my general friend circle.

I'm not gonna talk about the armpit and feet stuff because genuinely who cares but the artwork on the top left corner was never meant to be rape art or fetish content. It was meant to represent the regret my OC Angelo had with having sex with a superior.

Now yes it may look like "rape fetish" material but it was a small doodle that was never meant to leave my inner circle of people who understood the lore of my characters.

The fact yummi and juni sought out this content despite it not being for them is a gross breach of my privacy and again very hypocritical.

JOKING ABOUT RAPING ME

I still think this is crazy because they lost their minds when I made a joke video about yummicactus hating me and using that justin bieber disstrack audio which was popular at the time. It turns out I was right though they DID want to rape me and expressed it here

WE YES WE WILL BE RAPINGCHIRSYSYUSLIVE

I understand it was meant to be a "joke" but this just completely goes against their online persona of "never say anything bad about anyone ever". I mean they freaked out over me sending yummi incredible gassy but were okay with saying this? I am a victim of SA (not of rape just to make this clear) something they probably know about because of their obsessive stalking and probably said this on purpose.

CONCLUSION

Anyways these people have harassed me for months on end with multiple vides and callouts on me and honestly they've really fucked up my mental health and led to me getting doxxed (something they apparently tried to do) and even someone threatening to call the police on me for being mean on the internet?? I don't know man.

Little note from anon doc writer

Theyre probably gonna make a followup to this doc and so if yall (juni and yummi) r reading this, its ok to admit u fucked up lmfao. U did. That is it. U just need to admit u did awful things like everyone else. also if u ignore and dont show evidence ima be mad asf cuz that video had barely any screenshots and was almost all word of mouth. Im very disappointed.

Also another side note: dont say we faked anything etc or bring up other dramas for the sake of bringing them up (its ok and reasonable to point out things that r hypocritical) because the main focus should be on the harm thats been caused. I am one of the main writers of this. I am completely unbiased. Don't assume this was all written out of spite.

Thanks for reading
